Plastics Packaging in the UK: Roadmap for the Future

What will the future hold for the Plastics Packaging industry in the UK? The BPF Plastics Packaging 'Roadmap for the future' event will explore this crucial theme in this one day seminar. Corporate giants Marks and Spencer will join Defra and WRAP in discussing their future strategies and directions for their UK operations.

Aimed at plastics packaging producers and suppliers, this event will provide a valuable opportunity to network and to discover what government and your customers are planning and how it will affect your industry.

Speakers

Gavin Partington

BSDA

Gavin joined the BSDA as Director General in 2012 from the Wine and Spirit Trade Association, where he was interim Chief Executive.

In building the BSDA's capacity to promote and defend industry reputation, Gavin draws on many years of experience as a public relations consultant and a political journalist. Previous roles include Director of Communications for the Lawn Tennis Association and telecoms firm Energis. He has advised a wide range of corporate clients both independently and with Brunswick Group. Previously, he was political editor of GMTV.

Chris Preston

DEFRA

Chris joined the Civil Service after finishing his studies at Cardiff University. The early part of career was spent in the Benefits Agency. Since then he has held a variety of posts which have included inspection work, corporate services and various policy and delivery roles in marine and fisheries, animal health, water and climate change adaptation. In 2003 he also gained an MA in Public Services Management from York University. In January 2016 he took up post as Defra's Deputy Director for Waste and Recycling.

Trewin Restorick

Hubbub

Trewin Restorick is Founder and CEO of the charity Hubbub UK www.hubbub.org.uk which aims to revolutionise the way environmental messages are communicated by bringing people and organisations together as a force for good. He is also Chair of Student Hubs <http://www.studenthubs.org/>

Previously Trewin created Global Action Plan the UK's leading environmental behaviour change charity which he set up in 1993. As CEO, Trewin developed award winning partnerships with BskyB, Barts NHS Trust and EON and developed successful initiatives in schools and communities. Trewin is a frequent media commentator on environmental issues and was trained by Al Gore as one of his climate change ambassadors.
